

LUIGI BRICOCOLI

Luigi Bricocoli, Member of the Supervisory Board pursuant to Legislative Decree 231/01 of Fiera Milano S.p.A. since 29 May 2017.

He graduated from Cattolica University in Milan with a degree in Law and from University of Tor Vergata in Rome with a degree in Economic and Financial Security.

Between 1982 and 2005, after completing his training at the Academy of the Guardia di Finanza (Financial Police), he was assigned to the Operations Command Centre holding positions of increasing responsibility in various locations (Genoa, Naples, Bolzano, Milan, Venice and Novara) until reaching the rank of Lieutenant Colonel. During this period, in 2001 he also served as judge at the Military Court of Appeal of Verona. Between 2005 and 2010 he served as Corporate Security Manager and, subsequently, Internal Audit Director for the Erg Group.

Between 2010 and 2014 he worked as Risk Manager at San Quirico Spa, a holding company owned by the Garrone - Mondini families. He was Head of the risk management department and member of the Board of Directors of the U.C. Sampdoria Spa football club between 2012 and 2014. He was tasked with coordinating the actions aimed at preventing the commission of sports offences by athletes, managers and members of the club, as well as the effects of the criminal, civil and sports liability of the club itself.

Since 2014, he has been providing consulting services in the field of risk management, security management, internal control system and risk management, internal audit, compliance with Italian Legislative Decree 231/01.

Since 2005, he has served as chairman/member of Supervisory Bodies pursuant to Italian Legislative Decree 231/01 in many companies, including listed companies. He is Chairman of the Board of Directors of the consortium company: Ambienteduepuntozero.

He is a member of the AODV 231 (Association of Supervisory Bodies pursuant to Italian Legislative Decree 231/01).

